INFORMATION FOR THE GUEST / TOURIST ON PERSONAL DATA COLLECTION AND PROCESSING

Pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, it is acknowledged that:

- Processing is only legal if and to the extent that at least one of the following is met:
 - (a) the data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes;
 - (b) processing is necessary for the performance of the contract to which the subject is a party or in order to take actions before entering a contract upon the request of the subject;
 - (c) processing is necessary to comply with the legal obligations of the controller;
 - (d) processing is necessary in order to protect the key interests of the subject or other natural person;
 - (e) processing is necessary for the performance of tasks of public interest or in the exercise of the official authority of the controller;
 - (f) processing is necessary for the legitimate interests of the controller or a third party unless the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the subject who requires the protection of personal data are greater than these interests, especially if the subject is a child.

Point (f) shall not apply to work carried out by public authorities when performing their duties.

- Conditions for consent
 - 'Consent' means any freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous indication of the data subject's wishes by which he or she, by a statement or by a clear affirmative action, signifies agreement to the processing of personal data relating to him or her.
 - Where processing is based on consent, the controller shall be able to demonstrate that the data subject has consented to the processing of his or her personal data.
 - If the data subject's consent is given in the context of a written declaration that also concerns other matters, the request for consent shall be presented in a manner that is clearly distinguishable from the other matters, in an intelligible and easily accessible form, using clear and plain language. Any part of such a declaration that constitutes an infringement of this Regulation shall not be binding.

- The data subject shall have the right to withdraw his or her consent at any time. The withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal. Prior to giving consent, the data subject shall be informed thereof. It shall be as easy to withdraw as to give consent.
- When assessing whether consent is freely given, the utmost account shall be taken of whether, inter alia, the performance of a contract, including the provision of a service, is conditional on consent to the processing of personal data that is not necessary for the performance of that contract.
